

INCLUSION STATEMENT

INCLUSION STATEMENT - CLUB COMMITMENT

Inglemire AFC is committed to promoting equality, diversity, and inclusion (EDI) in all aspects of our operations. As part of this commitment, the club recognises the importance of implementing an EDI policy to ensure that all members, volunteers, and stakeholders are treated fairly and with respect

All members are expected to abide by the requirements of the

Race Relations Act 1976,
Sex discrimination Act 1986,
Disability Discriminations Act 1995.

Specifically, discrimination is prohibited by: -

Treating any member differently to others based on age, gender, gender reassignment, sexual orientation, marital status or civil partnership, racial origin, faith, ability or disability, pregnancy and maternity and to refrain from any behavior that could be considered discriminatory, harassing, or bullying.

Inglemire Afc - Club Chairman
Matthew May

The club will take appropriate action to address any complaints or concerns related to discrimination, harassment, or bullying. This may include disciplinary action, training, or other measures as appropriate.

Inglemire Afc actively promotes equality, diversity, and inclusion in all aspects of our operations. This includes:

Ensuring that recruitment and selection processes are fair and inclusive, and that all job applicants are treated equally.

Providing equal opportunities for all players, regardless of their race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, age, religion, or disability.

Providing training and development opportunities for all staff and volunteers, to promote awareness of EDI issues and to support the development of an inclusive culture.

Encouraging participation from all members of the community, and working to remove any barriers to participation.

Monitoring and reviewing the effectiveness of this policy on a regular basis, and making any necessary improvements.
